DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-16 are pending in this Board of Appeals Decision of September 23, 2009 of Reversal.

Reopening Prosecution

2. In view of the Appeals Conference Decision on 09/23/09, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED as set forth here below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

- (1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,
- (2) request reinstatement of the appeal.

If reinstatement of the appeal is requested, such request must be accompanied by a supplemental appeal brief, but no new amendments, affidavits (37 CFR 1.130, 1.131 or 1.132) or other evidence are permitted. See 37 CFR 1.193(b)(2).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-16 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record Remington et al. teaches an electronic bill presentment and payment remittance. Egendorf teaches a method of billing commercial transactions over the internet. Brown teaches an automated accounting system for an entity in which a plurality of data inputs are made to a file established for the entity. "PACTEL'S LEGAL TEAM HAD BETTER GET READY FOR SOME COMPTITION" teaches Pacific Telesis Group makes its in-house legal team competitive with outside law firms has formed a separate subsidiary that will sell legal services and the legal unit will produce bills for its clients. Chang teaches a clearing and settlement system for processing received financial transactions by updating an account balance at each payor or payee's financial institution.

The prior art of record fails to teach an account managed by an organization that is separate from the law firm in which deposits are made to have a positive balance and a recirculating retainer using three computer systems (a firm computer system, a fee computer system, and an accounting computer system) in independent claim 1. For these reasons 2-16 are allowed by dependency.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
